TEN CENTS A WEEK

DEBATE ON THE TARIFF HAS CLOSED AT LAST

Came After Seventy Days of Almost Continuous Debate of Payne Tariff Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—After seventy days of almost continuous debate, the Senate at 3:45 p. m., yesterday, concluded its discussion of the schedules of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. Five minutes afterwards the Senate adjourned for the day to permit the lengthy preparation possible in so short a time for the debate on the corporation and income tax questions, which will begin soon after the Senate convenes today.

The early adjournment afforded the tired Senators a little much-needed relaxation from long hours in the overheated Senate chamber.

Many of them embraced the opportunity to go to Fort Myer for the purpose of witnessing the airship tests, and others attended the baseball game at American League park. Senator Aldrich was among those who went to Fort Myer. He has been greatly interested in the flights made by the Wright brothers, and much desired to see their machine in action. Those who went to Fort Myer were disappointed, however; owing to an unfavorable wind no flight was attempted today by the Wrights.

Mr. Aldrich told some of his friends that he would take a few days off duty for a water trip of some kind if it develops that the discussion of the income tax is likely to be an extended one. In this event, Senator Flint will take charge of the bill and Senator Root, who aided Attorney General Wickersham in drafting the corporation tax amendment, will take charge of that measure. There has been some discussion of postponing the income tax, and the corporation tax amendment until the next regular session, but this suggestion has not met with favor. Senate leaders take the position that a movement of this character would embarrass President Taft.

It is now expected that only one vote will intervene between the assembling of the Senate today and the taking up of those questions of internal taxation. Senator Tillman has pending an amendment providing for a tax of 10 cents a pound on tea, and it is believed that this provision will not lead to further debate. No intimation has been given of other amendments and the discussion probably will be shifted from the tariff to the internal revenue, and it is understood that the opening speech will be made by Senator Cummins of Iowa in support of an income tax amendment as a part of the tariff bill in contradistinction to the movement for a corporation tax and an independent resolution looking to the imposition of an income tax through the instrumentality of a constitutional amendment. The finance committee's income tax constitutional provision was presented yesterday, and as the corporation tax amendment was introduced some days ago, both are now before the Senate in regular order.

Yesterday's proceedings consisted of a general and final cleaning up of the passed over provisions in both the dutiable and free lists of the tariff bill.

The duty on structural iron and steel valued at more than 9-10 of a cent a pound was increased from 3-10 to 4-10 of a cent per pound, being an addition to the House rate of 1-10 of a cent. The rate on steel of a lower value was left unchanged. On zinc in pigs there was also an addition of half a cent a pound over the House rate of 1 cent.

Ineffectual efforts were made to have school books and salt put on the free list.

Some article that is simply "in the way" at your house might, if advertised, be sold to someone who is anxiously looking for

NEWS FROM ARCHER.

ARCHER, June 29.—Mrs. Arthur Reed and daughter, Miss Lillian, and son, John Arthur, returned Saturday from a very pleasant visit of a few days to relatives at Inverness.

permanent guest arrived at his home yesterday evening. He is a fine 10-pound boy. Mother and child roving nicely.

Miss Ida Chamblin expects to leave Saturday for Tennessee and other States. She will be gone until the summer is over.

Mrs. Edwin Thomas and little daughter, Maud, returned Sunday afternoon from a couple of days' visit to Jacksonville.

Hastings Potato Diggers vs. the Oak Halls Today

Today will witness the first try-out with Hastings, the potato diggers of St. Johns county, and unless we are badly mistaken they will make it interesting for Manager Davis' lads on the ball lot.

The team has a remarkably good record behind them, having won a large percentage of the games played, so you will be interested by visiting the park and seeing the game. You are needed for "rooting" purposes.

While the attendance has been fair it is nothing to compare with what it should be, and all citizens should not take it for granted that we are going to win anyway; but go out, witness the game, get a paper horn, and get busy.

Spottswood will be placed in the box for the first game with Hastings, and it is stated that the visitors are coming this way loaded with all of the very best material they could secure to capture both games.

The game will be called promptly at 4 o'clock, so be on hand at 3:30 and see the pretty practice work of the two teams on the field.

MICANOPY NEWS.

Miss Rubie Thrasher Entertains in a Most Novel Manner.

MICANOPY, June 29.—One of the most delightful as well as unique functions of the season was an entertainment given by Miss Rubie Thrasher to visiting guests, recent school mates at Columbia College—Misses Campbell and Lee of Jacksonville and Miss Stephens of Palatka, on the evening of June 22nd.

The dainty invitations so generously distributed bore an air of mystery and excited the curiosity of all who were so fortunate as to receive one, for to the epicurian, a bird supper promised a treat, rich, rare and racy.

At the appointed hour, 8:30 o'clock, the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher began to fill with a happy, gay and expectant throng of lively lads and lassies on pleasure bent and with hearts full of youthful fancies in apprehending the novel meaning of what that "bird supper" was to be.

In the decorated reception hall stood the pretty hostess with her three lovely guests, and in a modest, unassuming manner, ushered in and welcomed each invited guest.

The oppressively warm weather for a time caused the punch bowl, which was in charge of Miss Elia Johnson and Mr. Albert Smith, to be a most constant and popular resort.

The matching of several pieces of cardboard, on which was written the names of birds and which caused the immediate coupling of the young people, was the beginning of a contest which puzzled the less ambitious, called forth the best that was in some, and for a brief space was the scene of intense determination, each eager to prove him or herself the clever prize-winner.

The program first contained "A young reporter's first effort." Hidden in the foliage of the sentences of the article were seventeen birds. To the party finding the greatest number of birds concealed in the lines referred to was awarded a feather for his cap or a plume for her hat.

Following this was the menu for the bird supper, which answers caused the merry crowd to put on their "thinking caps" the tighter:

"Menu."

1. The wing of America's national bird?
2. The beak of the prophet's friend?
3. The neck of the bird that saved the Roman army?
4. The white meat of our Thanksgiving fowl?
5. Ierial's food in the wilderness on toast?
6. The sweetest note from the throat of the dying bird?
7. A whole song from the South's peerless songster?
8. A foot from the bird of peace and innocence?
9. The liver of the bird which spends Friday in Hades?
10. A quoth from the bird that made Poe famous?
11. A top-not from the monster bird of the Andes?
12. An eye from the symbol of wisdom?
13. The wing of the bird that led Columbus to land?
14. All on toast from the fields about Savannah?
15. The whole bird—the lovers' pet?
16. A dish for the defeated candidate?
17. The queen of the farm?

The last feature of the program was guessing the names of the numerous birds of every hue and plumage which adorned the walls of the spacious dining-room, resplendent in pink, green and white decorations. Amid the merry-making delicious refreshments were served, after which reluctant "good nights" were said, each vowing Miss Thrasher a delightful hostess and her guests altogether charming.

Evinston, McIntosh, Tacoma and Micanopy were represented.

The successful contestants were Misses Vallie Grace first prize, a pret-

EGYPTIAN COTTON TO REMAIN ON FREE LIST

Growers of Long Staple Cotton Will Have to Continue to Compete With It.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Southern Senators yesterday ineffectually endeavored to take long staple or Egyptian cotton off the free list and to place upon it a duty of 4 cents a pound, which Senator Bacon, the author of the amendment, declared was a revenue duty only.

As a means of revenue, he said the 210,000 bales of Egyptian cotton imported into the United States annually should not be overlooked. Mr. Bacon estimated that the low duty proposed by him in ten years would bring into the treasury $40,000,000. The fact that this class of cotton is used in the making of laces, and high-grade goods, on which the duties had been increased in the pending bill, Mr. Bacon said was an assurance that the duty would not add to the prices of the articles made from the long staple product.

Senators Talliaferro and Fletcher of Florida declared that the people of their State wanted the duty on long staple cotton and Mr. Talliaferro admitted that they wanted it for the protection of the Sea Island cotton industry. By a viva voce vote the amendment to remove long staple cotton from the free list was rejected.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at the Sanitarium at noon Sunday, Mrs. Cornelia J. Imboden Finney of Rocky Point, near this city, of a complication of diseases, that of the heart being most prominent.

She was born in West Carroll Parish, La., and was seventy-one years of age. She leaves a husband, Samuel G. Finney, a citizen of Rocky Point and an Englishman by birth and rearing, and one son, James Imboden Finney, editor and proprietor of The Brownsville (Tenn.) States-Graphic, and his two sons, her grandchildren. She was the daughter of Miss Dunklin of Virginia, who was the wife of Mr. Imboden. She was a sister of the famous Confederate captain of artillery, James Imboden of Missouri, and a cousin of General John Imboden of "Jeb" Stewart's cavalry corps. She had been raised in affluence but suffered much by the vicissitudes and losses during and since the war. Through it all she remained true to her fine heritage of just womanhood and human sympathy. She was, according to the best standards of humanity, a good, true woman, and this being true it is the best that tongue or pen can say of her, and I am sure now she does not need the offices of either, for she has already heard the celestial commendations, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Picnic Near Fairbanks.

Large Stock Farm Latest Enterprise for Micanopy

One of the largest combination stock and truck farms in Florida is now being established near Micanopy on what is known as the Powell estate. The manager, A. U. Hilleary, states that it is the intention of the stockholders to have the largest farm in the State.

J. H. Snyder & Co., of New York, are interested in the project, and they have invested a large amount of money already in the enterprise, draining one lake of about sixty acres.

Besides the vegetables they will raise, they propose to make a specialty of fancy frame lettuce and choice celery, and have already prepared the lands and placed the plant on the ground to be ready for business the coming season.

They have a strip of 360 acres of prairie land that will be used exclusively for stock pasturage, and besides the large number of cattle already placed there, Mr. Hilleary will place about fifty head more on the premises during the coming week.

There is something over 1,500 acres in the entire tract, and if the venture proves as successful as the company anticipate they will add still more to the place, and eventually make of it a large ranch for the purpose of improving the stock of the State.

KILLED HORSE WHICH HE STOLE TO RIDE

WILL JOHNSON LANDED IN JAIL FOR THE OFFENSE.

Animal Was Property of E. Ludwig of Tioga and Died Before Reaching the Stable.

Will Johnson, a negro employed for some time by E. Ludwig of Tioga, was arrested and brought here Monday by Deputy Sheriff Wynne on the charge of having killed a fine animal belonging to Mr. Ludwig.

Deputy Sheriff Wynne has been quietly working on the case since the stealing, and states that he has sufficient proof to establish the negro's guilt, which will be brought out at the preliminary hearing before Judge Mason some time this week, or as soon as the witnesses can be summoned.

It seems that the negro was the only one that carried a key to the stable in which the horse was kept, and that during Saturday night, June 19th, he took the animal from the stable and drove it until it was nearly dead, returning just in time for the horse to drop and die on the outside of the lot.

A number of witnesses have been secured who will testify that Johnson was seen with the animal after it had been placed in the stable for the night and all of the stock locked up for safe keeping.

DON'T GROW OLD

Keep Your Hair Bright and Luxuriant and Stay Young.

Yes, Parisian Sage, the most invigorating hair restorer, grows hair; the women of America, who have luxuriant hair, know it does, and that is why thousands of attractive women throughout the land are regularly using it.

For years this almost marvelous grower of lustrous and beautiful hair was confined to the elite of Europe and New York City, but about two years ago it was given to a select list of druggists, and today can be obtained in any city or town in America where society women of refinement dwell.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair tonic in the world. It makes the hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant in a few days. It is perfumed most daintily and is not sticky or greasy. It stops falling hair, cures dandruff and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

This is what Mrs. Elizabeth E. Anderson, Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes:

"I had given up hope of ever being cured of dandruff, when I purchased a bottle of Parisian Sage. It has entirely removed the dandruff, and has started a growth of new hair, and all this after having been troubled for 15 years. I cheerfully recommended Parisian Sage."

W. M. Johnson is the regularly appointed agent in Gainesville for Parisian Sage, and he will sell you a large bottle under a rigid guarantee for 50 cents.

A large bottle of better tonic, that's what you get when you lay down a half-dollar for a bottle of Parisian Sage. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package and bottle.

JUNIORS AT MICANOPY.

Defeated by a Score of 14 to 4 on Last Tuesday.

A number of young baseball enthusiasts hied off to Micanopy Tuesday and met the team of that place in a contest on the diamond. The game was a very one-sided affair, the score being fourteen to four in favor of the Micanopy boys.

Only last week they had their first contest, which was much more interesting, but in this game the Micanopy boys were also victorious.

FUNERAL OF MR. DAWKINS.

Services Held From the Episcopal Church Tuesday Evening.

The services over the remains of B. F. Dawkins, who died from a stroke of paralysis at 12:10 o'clock Tuesday morning, were held from the Episcopal church Tuesday evening, Rev. F. H. Craighill preaching the services.

Having been connected with the court house in various capacities, all of the county officers were present, as well as a large number of the citizens of Gainesville who had known the deceased for the past twenty-five years or more.

He had been, up to the time of his death, one of the deputies of Sheriff Ramsey, besides holding the position of Deputy U. S. Marshall, both of which he filled with entire satisfaction, proving very active for a man of his age up to within a short while before his affliction.

The remains were laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery.

For the "Syndicate" Sale's Splendid Success, I Say Thank You!

By your patronage you have helped us make this sale Gainesville's most successful trade event—more goods have been sold, more trade brought to Gainesville than ever before. It has been a positive pleasure to me to conduct this sale in this splendid store and to sell to high-class customers that make this store their "trading home."

In all my travels, and I have seen them all, I have never met a nicer class of trade than these Gainesville and surrounding people—intelligent, appreciative and good judges of merchandise, they have been quick to respond to our efforts to help them save; then, too, this store is, I can truthfully say, one of the best in Florida. I say advisedly, the Hyde Co. show today the best dry goods store and stock in Florida. I know them all, and hold sales in the best of them, and the Hyde store surpasses them all for the best bought and most cheaply sold merchandise. No mill ends were necessary to meet the low prices I require all the stores to make for my sales, because the Hyde Company's splendid stock met my every demand.

Again I say thank you, and good-bye until I come again. All left-overs are to be closed out regardless of cost.

Yours cordially,
SHEPHERD B. WATSON.

SANITARIUM NOTES

All of our people do not realize perhaps the value of the Sanitarium to the business interests of the city. Aside from the humanitarian feature of the work, and the great public necessity for its existence, the institution is paying out to the business houses of Gainesville not less than $600 in cash every month. As the greater part of this sum is brought here by invalids from a distance, and is money that would not otherwise find its way to Gainesville, it can readily be seen that, as a purely business proposition, the institution is going to be worth a great deal to the city.

J. H. Dyess of Campville, who came to the Sanitarium to be treated for a severe attack of appendicitis, has recovered and returned home. Mr. Dyess fortunately recovered under treatment without the necessity of an operation.

Mrs. H. A. Bailey of Hawthorn has recovered sufficiently to enable her to return home.

Mrs. Rose Chapman, who has had a serious siege with the fever, is now sitting up and will be able to return home in a few days.

Mr. A. W. Wilson, one of the employees at Bock's mill, has been at the Sanitarium, under the treatment of Dr. Dell for a badly injured arm.

W. F. Love of Trenton, a surgical patient this week, is improving rapidly.

Miss Helen Oneale, one of the graduates of the Sanitarium Training School for Nurses, who has been following her profession in Jacksonville since her graduation from the Sanitarium, has returned for a few weeks.

Dr. Gerry R. Holden of Jacksonville was a visitor to the Sanitarium last week, having been called over to see a patient.

Dr. Jas. H. Randolph, physician at the State Hospital at Chattahoochee, and one of the brightest young physicians in the State, was an interested visitor to the Sanitarium during the week. Dr. Randolph is making special study of hospital and sanitarium management, and was very complimentary in his remarks in reference to the management and discipline of our institution.

During the week the following physicians have been daily visitors to the Sanitarium, each having from one to several patients to look after: Dr. Hodges, Dr. Colson, Dr. DePass, Dr. Dell and Dr. Spencer.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." Dr. Murphree Here.

Dr. A. A. Murphree, president of the University of Florida, arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days on business. He will attend the Denver convention of teachers, after which he will make final arrangements for removing his family from Tallahassee. Dr. Murphree is greatly encouraged at the prospects of the coming session of the University, reports indicating a large attendance.

WHY SUCH MISREPRESENTATION?

It is the opinion of Senator McCreary, editor of The Gainesville Sun, that if the new primary law "does not result in the abolition of the primary system of nominating officers, then nothing else is calculated to do so. The new law will have to be seen to be 'appreciated' by the voters." He thinks its provisions are too drastic.—Times-Union Short Talks.

Senator McCreary is one of the "conservative" Senators who have always been opposed to the primary, which gives to the people the right to select their own candidates, and takes this right away from the corporations who have always controlled conventions. Senator McCreary can perhaps tell an anxious public whether or not the "drastic provisions" of the primary law were inserted with the idea of making the primary so objectionable that it would be an easy thing to alter the voters and lead them back to the convention trough.—DeLand News.

Editor Codrington's statement that the editor of The Sun has "always been opposed to the primary," is a malicious misrepresentation of the record of the editor of this paper both as editor and member of the Legislature. The Sun has always advocated the primary system of making nominations and the editor of this paper introduced and succeeded in passing through the Legislature the first bill that was ever placed upon the statute books legalizing primary elections in this State.

We are today as strongly in favor of the primary as we ever were, but we did not vote for the law enacted by the last Legislature, and we are of the opinion that one election held under its provisions will thoroughly disgust the people. If it works satisfactorily we will acknowledge our mistake, but we do not believe the Democratic voters will stand for it for more than one election.

The city council has passed an ordinance making it an offence to spit upon the sidewalk, or upon the floor or wall of any public building within the city of Live Oak. This is a splendid ordinance and its enforcement will be hailed with delight by those who are interested in bringing about a reform along the lines of cleanliness, and who take a pride in seeing the sidewalks, streets and public property kept as they should be.—Live Oak Democrat.

SILAGE FOR WORK ANIMALS.

By John M. Scott, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

Silos are nothing new. They have been in use for a hundred years. However, it has only been within the past thirty-five years that silos have been built in the United States. The first silo in the United States was put up in 1875 by Professor Miles of Michigan. Since that time the number in use has increased rapidly, especially in the dairy sections.

Crops for the Silo.

There are numerous crops that can be grown for silage. Corn, sorghum, Japanese cane, cowpeas, beggarweed, crabgrass, in fact almost any green crop, may be put in a silo. However, such crops as cowpeas, beggarweed, and crabgrass are too succulent to make good silage by themselves.

When put in the silo they become mushy. But when mixed with corn or sorghum, they are quite satisfactory.

Japanese cane and sorghum are perhaps the best crops for Florida farmers to grow for silage. As a rule a larger yield per acre can be secured from these than from any other crop. This, however, will depend very much on the variety of sorghum grown. The early varieties, such as Early Amber, will produce only half the yield per acre which is given by such varieties as Gooseneck, Sumac, and Planter's Friend.

Yield and Cost.

There is no other method by which such a large quantity of fodder can be stored in so small a space as by putting it in the silo. From ten acres of sorghum one can harvest 100 to 125 tons of silage. A like amount can be obtained from five acres of Japanese cane. Under ordinary conditions, a crop of sorghum should be grown and placed in the silo at a cost not exceeding $3 per ton. In no other form can feed be preserved so cheaply. Another advantage of silage is that the rainy season will not interfere with the filling of the silo, as the material should always be wet when it goes in.

Silage Not a Complete Ration.

From the nature of silage, it is a better feed for cattle and sheep than for horses and mules, being a bulky feed. An average thousand-pound cow will consume about 40 pounds of silage a day, while a horse or mule of the same weight should not usually be given more than about half that amount. However, this will depend on whether the horse is being used for hard driving or not. A horse that is doing little or no work can be fed more silage than the horse at steady, hard work.

Silage a Succulent Feed.

Since silage is a soft, succulent feed, in fact practically the same as fresh grass, the effect on the horse's bowels is similar. Anyone knows that a horse pasturing on grass is not in condition to do steady, hard work. On the other hand, a horse at hard work requires a certain amount of succulent feed, such as silage or grass, to keep its digestive system in good condition. Dry grain and hay alone are not always conducive to a good, healthy appetite. It must also be remembered that about 75 per cent of the silage is water, and the remaining 25 per cent is largely carbonaceous, or heat-producing material, with only a small percentage of the bone and muscle-producing substance. For this reason silage cannot be substituted for corn or oats, but it can to advantage replace perhaps one-half of the hay fed to horses doing steady work. However, the amount of silage that can be substituted for hay will vary with different animals, and each animal must be watched to note the effect of the silage. When silage is first fed, it should be fed in small quantities until the animal becomes accustomed to it.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address,

LOWRY PRELIMINARY BEFORE JUDGE MASON

CASE CONTINUED FOR THIRTY DAYS PENDING EVIDENCE.

This to Determine the Direct Cause of His Death Thirty Days Later.

* The preliminary hearing of James Lowry, colored, was held before Judge Mason Monday, when all of the evidence was introduced concerning the case in this county, a large number of witnesses having been summoned here from Wilcox to testify in behalf of the State.

Owing to the fact that nothing had been introduced showing whether the negro died from the effects of the wounds, Judge Mason adjourned the hearing in the case until the South Carolina authorities could be communicated with.

The evidence shows that the negro, Alf Johnson, was stabbed by James Lowry, but he afterwards left for his South Carolina home and after having been there for a month died, supposedly from the wounds, and it is to determine this part of the evidence that Lowry is held on the murder charge.

CUTICURA CURED HIS SORE EYES

When 63 Years Old Eye-Balls and Lids Became Terribly Inflamed—
Was Unable to Go About—Home
Remedies and Professional Treatment were Equally Unsuccessful.

TOOK FRIEND'S ADVICE: HAS NO MORE TROUBLE

"About two years ago my eyes got in such a condition that I was unable to go about. They were terribly inflamed, both the balls and lids. I tried home remedies without relief. Then I decided to go to our family physician, but he didn't help them. Then I tried two more of our most prominent physicians, but my eyes grew continually worse. At this time a friend of mine advised me to try Cuticura Ointment, and after using it about one week my eyes were considerably improved and in two weeks they were almost well. They have never given me any trouble since. I was then sixty-three years old and am now sixty-five. I shall never fail to speak a word of praise for the Cuticura Remedies when I have an opportunity, and I trust that this letter may be the means of others being cured as I have been. G. B. Halsey, Mouth of Wilson, Grayson Co., Va., Apr. 4, 1908."

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Occurs at Arredondo on Last Sunday Morning—Many Present.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Beville of Arredondo Sunday morning, June 27, when their daughter, Miss Kate, was wed to Mr. G. P. Fardee, Rev. Proctor officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ellen Beville, as maid of honor, and Mr. Lee Summerlin acted as best man.

The bride never looked lovelier than in her wedding dress of blue cloth with hat and gloves to match, while her sister was dressed in white.

After the ceremony a splendid buffet breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Pardee left on the 12:05 Coast Line train for a wedding trip down the East Coast of our own lovely Florida. After July 10th they will be at home to their friends in North Gainesville.

Many friends of both young people join in wishing for them a life of unbounded happiness.

Death of Geo. Letford.

Every newspaper man in Florida will be surprised and pained to hear of the death of Geo. T. Letford, representative of Bucklen & Co., Chicago. We have been accustomed to meet him annually somewhere in Florida for nearly a quarter of a century. A better man never lived, and his place will be hard to fill. Last Saturday we were thinking about him and wondering why he did not come around as usual, and Saturday night we read of his death in Minnesota from paralysis. We venture the assertion that no other patent medicine representative was ever so well liked in Florida as Geo. T. Letford, and all who knew him will regret his demise. He has annually visited Inverness and surrounding towns, and every merchant in the country who handles drugs knew him and liked him. Peace to his ashes.—Inverness Chronicle.

Mr. Letford was well and favorably known to the drug trade in this section, and his annual visits will be sadly missed. The editor of The Sun had known him personally for about 25 years and we always found him a genial, social gentleman, with whom it was a pleasure to do business.

His wants were made known to a brother Mason and he was provided with sufficient funds for the return of both himself and daughter.

It was necessary for Mr. Thomas to come here yesterday and replace the animal, which he did with a pair of mules. The loss will prove rather hard on him at this time, being just between his crops.
